PREPARING OURSELVES TO WORSHIP GOD

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

ENTERING INTO GOD'S PRESENCE

✠Call to Worship

based on Psalm 139

L: Lord, you have examined us.

P: You know our resting and rising, you know us.

L: Even from your distant vantage,

P: You pay attention to our intended purposes,

L: Examine us Lord and consider our hearts,

P: And be aware of our anxieties,

L: Find any wickedness that shapes our path,

P: And lead us instead in your everlasting way.

All: Praise the Lord.

✠Opening Song

"We Are One in the Spirit"

Hymnal #300

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Lord, we celebrate your coming, and look with hope toward your leadership. Yet, the invitation to fully embrace our encounter with you and to follow you, we too often find problematic. We waver on what it means to be your disciples, and to embody faithful discipleship in our lives. Forgive our ways of trying to keep you distant. Forgive us for the ways we attempt to contain you, for example, as simply something we think about. Remind us how well you know us, including our foibles and anxieties. Help us see how much we need your leadership. May we be moved to follow Jesus, embrace discipleship, and notice our renewed relationship with you, Lord. Remake us as those, through whom your goodness shines that our lives illuminate your redeeming, healing way.

(silent confession and personal reflection)

We are a MATTHEW 25 church
pcusa.org/matthew25

First Presbyterian is a Stephen Ministry Congregation.

We are called to.....

- Nurture spiritual growth, strengthen faith in God, cultivate gifts of the spirit, and change lives.
- Develop a personal relationship with God.
- Be God's love to others through compassionate Christian care and mission actions.
- Glorify God through worship, fellowship, and prayer.
- Express the grace we have received by embracing the value and worth of each one of God's people and welcome each one into our fellowship.
- Give the gift of the good news of Christ and our faith to others through word and deed.
